

In Devoran there is plenty of wildlife. If you keep your eyes peeled you might see some extraordinary birds and animals.

Fact

Kingfishers can be spotted at the creek.

WORD SEARCH

A K F Y W N C A R A I N
 N F U N O A L S Q B T J
 I C T S U N G H J S E F
 M B I R D Y J M C Z L
 A H J O U O R W F H O
 L T R E E M W A T X W
 L E A F K V D S Y J M E
 W A L K V B U H A Y J R

WALK

LEAF

You

Devoran

BIRD

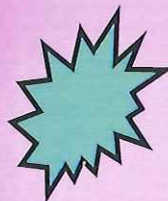

RAIN

FLOWER

SUN

ANIMAL

FUN

A DAY
 OUTDOORS
 IN DEVORAN

Come to Devoran to see the wonderful scenery and unforgettable sights. Whether you're looking for peace and quite or a wild adventure, then come to the perfect place, Devoran.

Why not pop in the Old Quay Inn for a delicious refreshment.

Once your kid's are raring to go, get them started by having the time of their life at the newly refurbished play park.

This leaflet is by; Hannah, Mae, Sophie and Emily.

Begin here at Devoran Village Hall.

Make a right turn up Market Street. As you stroll up the street, cast a glance at the old village school on your right.

Can you spot the old school bell?

Cross St, Johns Terrace. Past the church of St John and St Petroc on your left.

Continue your eye-opening walk straight ahead up the farm lane to a stile on your left. Over the stile, follow the path then first right to cross the farmers field.

What animals can you see in the fields?

Carry on straight towards a steep stone stile, over the stile and along the lane.

IN MEMORY OF UNA LANGDON

Can you find Una Langdon's bench?

Take a right at the heavy metal gates that lead you to a calming field. Pass through two more gates, carry on walking along wooded lanes until you go down a steep, long track.

At the bottom, turn right when you get to a narrow road. At the next left you can see Devoran Quay straight ahead.

If your legs are aching then stop off at the Old Quay Inn for a rest and for some relaxing views. Once you are ready to go again, walk along Quay road and then arrive back at Devoran Village Hall.

For more detailed information about the history of the Quay scan here

ALL THE TREES ARE LOSING
THEIR LEAVES,
AND NOT
ONE OF THEM
IS WORRIED

